

WRUW-FM 91.1 PROGRAM GUIDE

MORE MUSIC FEWER HITS.

Hello,

and thanks for picking up a copy of WRUW's new spring schedule! The next few months will provide a great time to stay inside from the cold, and listen to our station. There are plenty of new shows on our schedule from new DJ's to keep you jumping all over the musical map, like El Mañana and Guilty Pleasures. They're really excited to start their own shows. And of course, classic standards of our week remain, like stoncoldbikini, Beatmatrix, and When the Roses Bloom Again. All in all, we're excited to start the new decade with a great array of programs for you.

Not only do we provide a great variety of music, we provide a great forum for public affairs. We have many shows, including Doing Democracy and It's About Justice. We also carry the syndicated independent show Democracy Now! Monday through Friday. Live from Cleveland is also a great show of all live music each Thursday night. It's a Cleveland institution, and we're glad to have it!

As Ron talks about (at right), preparations have already begun for our annual Telethon, which will run from April 5-11. Any support we receive will be greatly appreciated, so please consider donating to your favorite college station.

As I face the last few months of managing the station, I'd like to thank the listeners one last time.

Thanks,
Dan Hill

From the International Telethon Desk:

Every spring WRUW holds its annual on-air Telethon. Donations to the Telethon pay for the upkeep of our equipment, expansion of our music library, and improvements like our 15,000 watt power increase and our current digitization of our CD library. This year's Telethon will run from April 5th through the 11th.

Last year hundreds of local and online listeners from across the US and beyond called in a pledge or donated online. To those of you who donated in previous years, THANK YOU! Your donations have made us the best source of alternative radio in Cleveland and on the internet. To those of you who haven't donated yet, come join us! You'll be supporting the great radio programming you enjoy, and we'll thank you with a gift CD or one of our WRUW logo items for you to wear proudly. Donating is easy, you can call the station at 216-368-2208 during the week of telethon, or pledge online at www.wruw.org before, during and after the Telethon.

So tune in during the week of April 5-11 and pledge your support to WRUW!
